HOW WE GREW

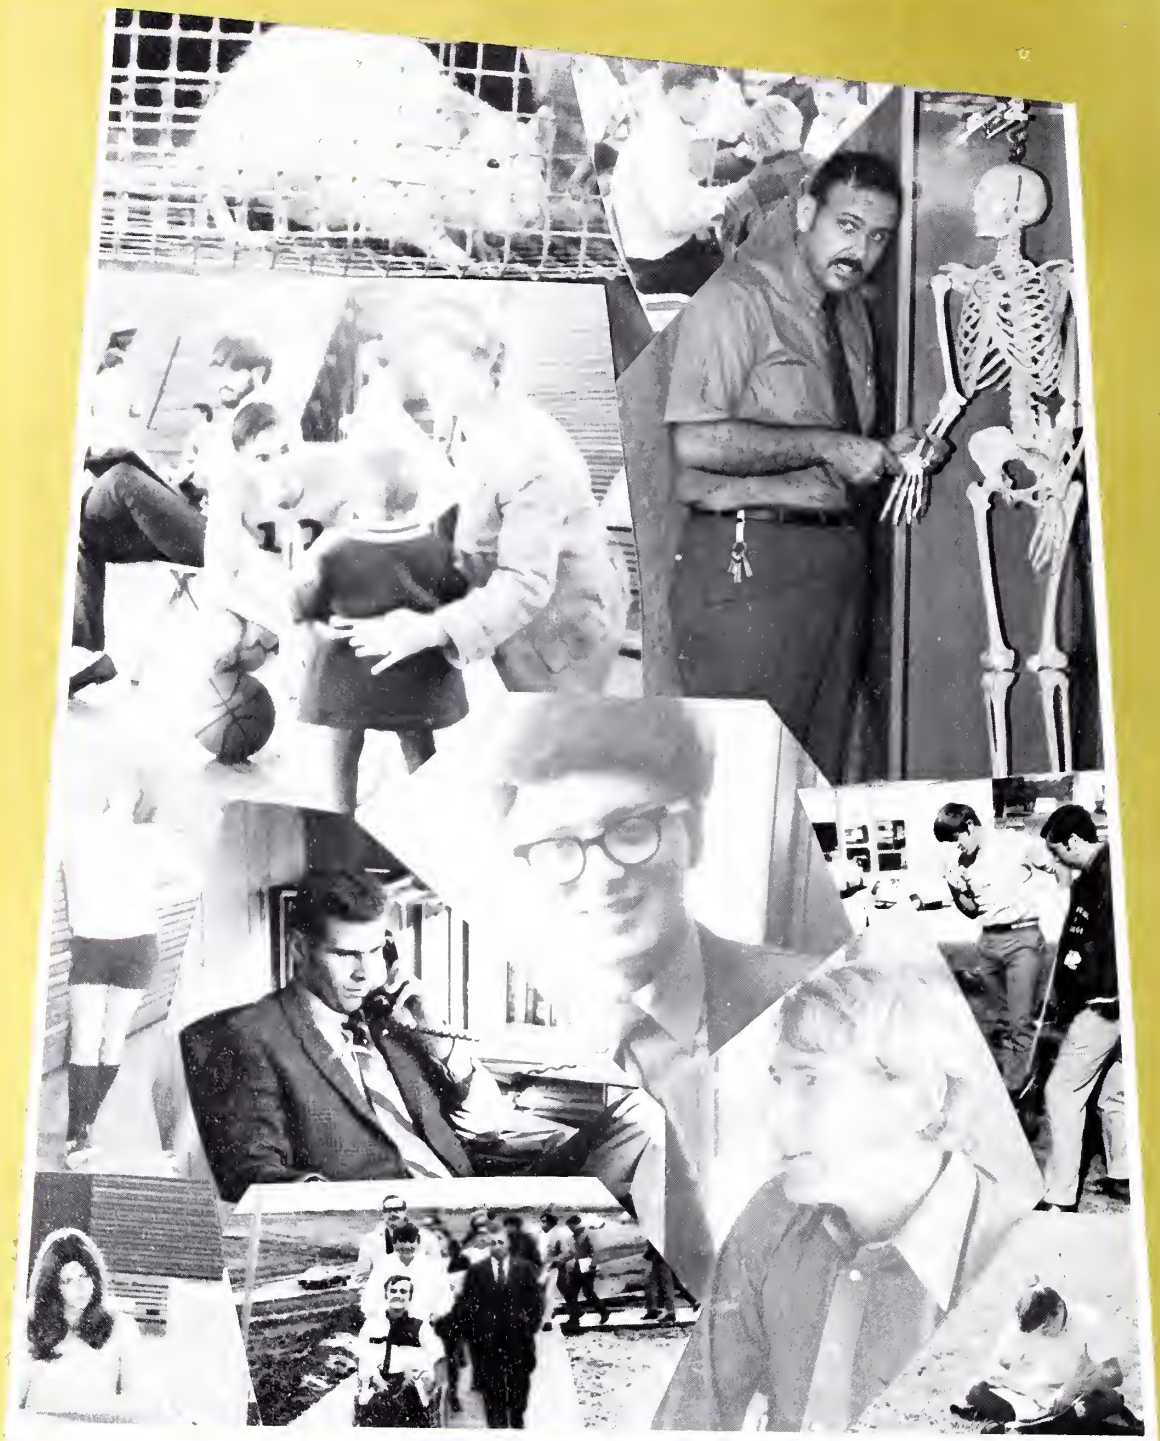

EDUCATION

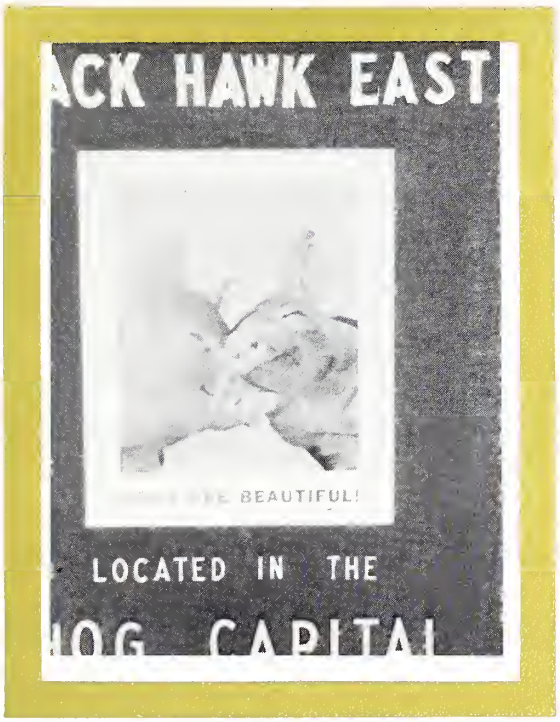

makes people:
Easy to govern
Difficult to drive
Impossible to enslave. — Anonymous

OUR DREAM REALIZED

Black Hawk East is . . .

playing "pitch" in the Center . . . studying on the grass . . . getting to know that someone . . communicating . . . winning the first home game . . . caring—about others . . . avoiding the Draft . . . participating . . . listening to "Aggie" talk . . . getting bored (or inspired) in class . . . waiting for vacations . . . worrying—about pollution . . . confiding in teachers . . . learning about ourselves—

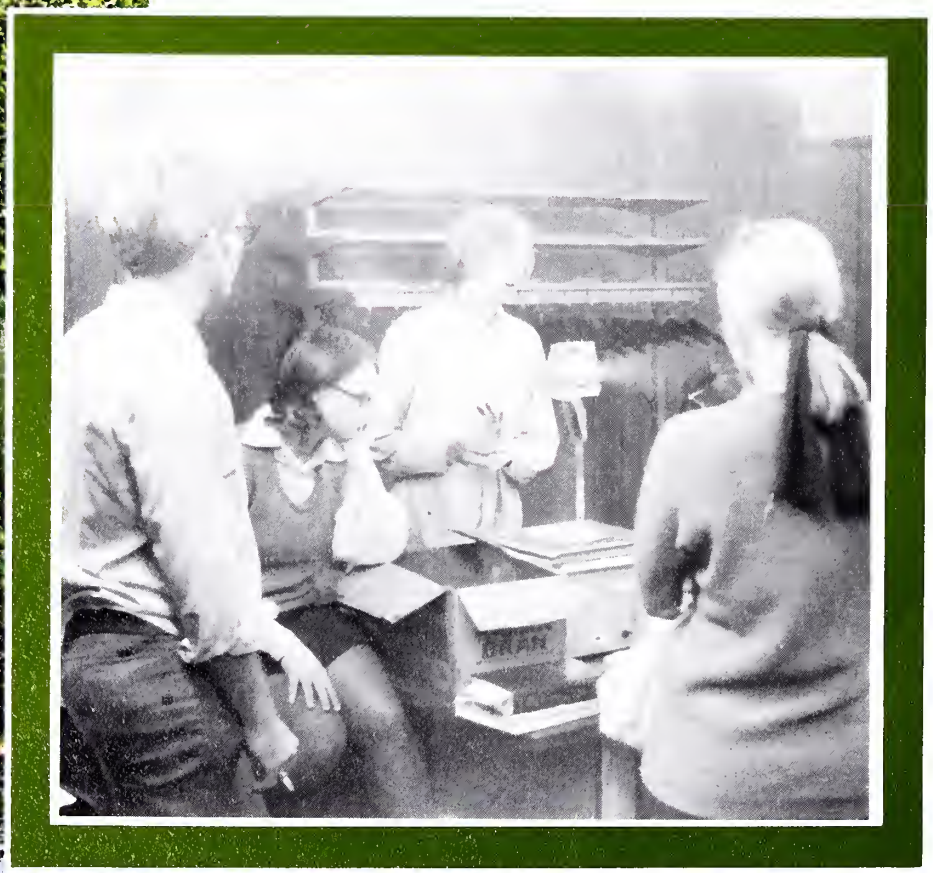

What is a friend? I'll tell you.
It is a person with whom you dare to be yourself.
Your soul can go naked with him.

* * *

When you are with him, you do not have to be on your guard.
You can say what you think – so as it is genuinely you.
He understands those contradictions in your nature that cause others to misjudge you.

* * *

A friend, I repeat, is one with whom
YOU DARE TO BE YOURSELF. – Anonymous

Being true to ourselves -- this is almost the code for our generation. And here at BHE each of us has discovered the opportunity to be truly himself. The variety of courses and diversity of activities have provided outlets not only to meet most of our needs and interests, but also to establish greater understanding of and tolerance for ideas different from our own.

ADMINISTRATION

Max F. Wingett

(Provost)

I received my B.S. degree from North Central College, Naperville, Illinois, and my M.S. from Indiana State University. I have been with Junior College District 503 since 1965. First I served as a counselor at the main campus and Director of Admissions. In 1967 I was appointed Dean of the newly formed East Campus. In 1969 I was named to my present position of Provost. In the Winter issue of Illinois Guidance and Personnel Association Journal 1966, I had my study published entitled: "A Junior College Freshman Class Profile Study."

Members of BlackHawk Board of Trustees

l. to r.: Doug Reynolds; Mrs. Mary Clifford; Bob Dan,—V.P. Administration and Finance; Peter Lardner, Chairman; Dr. Alban Reid; Ted Vlahos; Ken Moburg; Frank Hayes.

James W. Pitts

(Assistant Provost)

I received my B.A. degree from McKendree College, Lebanon, Illinois, and my M.Ed. from the University of Illinois. Before coming to Black Hawk East I taught in Waterloo High School. I came to Kewanee, Illinois in 1967 as Co-ordinator of Student Services until 1969, when I was appointed Assistant Provost. In this capacity I serve as director of financial assistance.

John Frattinger

(Counselor)

"Education must truly become more than a storing of knowledge. It must become a vehicle to release the potential each human being has. In this respect I feel that it is imperative that a good counseling program be developmental, as well as crisis-oriented. It is my obligation to the students, the school, the community and myself to develop and operate programs that permit students to explore and develop their potential. Just as I feel each student is obligated to get as much from the educational experience as he possibly can."

Lawrence Zimmerman

(L.R.C. Director)

I joined the Black Hawk East staff in September of 1970, as Director of The Learning Resource Center. My duties as director are to co-ordinate the Audio-Visual services on campus, to build services, usage and collection of the materials pertaining to The Learning Resource Center. I received my B.A. degree and M.A. degree from Northern Illinois University in DeKalb. Before coming to B.H.E.C. I worked as a librarian at Wilson Junior College in Chicago, Illinois.

Dale Swanson

(Supervisor of Business Affairs)

I came to Black Hawk East with a business background, having been General Manager for a local business for twenty-five years. Prior to this I was employed as an accountant for Joseph T. Carp, Inc., of Chicago. I am a graduate of Kewanee High School and the Kewanee Business College.

DEDICATION

Provost Max Wingett

The 1971 edition of the Wahian is dedicated to a man who has fought and fought hard to make Black Hawk College East Campus a reality. A man who has been with the college since its early days. A man who is ever friendly to everyone with whom he comes in contact. A man who is striving everyday to make Black Hawk College East Campus a better junior college for the people. To this man, Provost Max Wingett, we dedicate this book.

—From the People

ENGLISH

Fred Stahl

(Chairman of the Transfer Programs)

I am the Chairman of the Transfer Programs and my duties are to coordinate courses and supervise the faculty members under my program. I also review applications of new faculty with the provost. In addition I teach a Freshman Rhetoric course in which the student works at his own pace.This course gives the instructo time to help with individual problems of students. My persona philosophy of life can be summarized by a quote from Bertrand Russell: "Brief and powerless is Man's life; on him and all his race the slow, sure doom falls pitiless and dark. Blind to good and evil reckless of destruction, omnipotent matter rolls on its relentless way; for Man, condemned today to lose his dearest, tomorrow himself to pass through the gate of darkness, it remains only to cherish, ere yet the blow falls, the lofty thoughts that ennoble his little day; disdaining the coward terrors of the slave of Fate, to worship at the shrine that his own hands have built; undismayed by the empire of chance, to preserve a mind free from the wanton tyranny that rules his outward life; proudly defiant of the irresistible forces that tolerate, for a moment, his knowledge and his condemnation, to sustain alone, a weary but unyielding Atlas, the world that his own ideas have fashioned despite the trampling march of unconscious power." In general I am the most optimistic pessimist I know.

ENGLISH

David L. Bradbury

(Instructor)

In 1968 I came to Black Hawk East after teaching at Dwight, Illinois and Delavan, Illinois high schools. This year I've served as both Drama Club and Warrior advisor. At Black Hawk East I've taught freshman English courses and American Literature. I received my B.A. degree from Drake University and my M.S. degree from Illinois State University.

COMMUNICATIONS

Gary Marshall

(Instructor)

I feel the teacher of today must offer strategies f survival for the student of the Twentieth Century. e is in a perplexing state, facing a concluding era five housand years in length and opening his eyes like rehistoric man seeing a totally new world; he must be repared to face the ever-changing dawn.

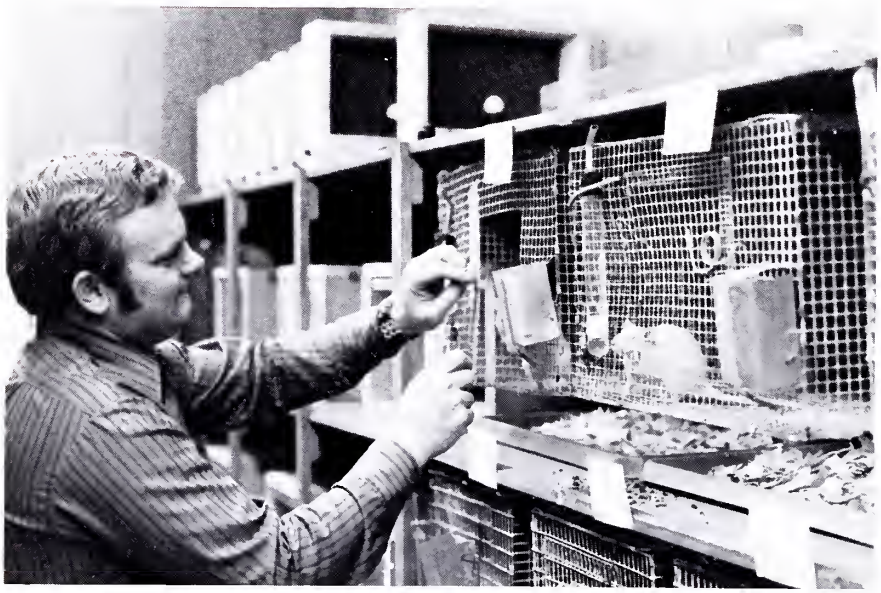

ENGLISH

Patricia Burgess

(Instructor)

A true "full-time part-timer" who has been with B.H.E. since its inception—this Wisconsin native feels our college has much to offer the community. Here, I've found unbounded opportunity for innovation in the classroom. And, especially through Yearbook and Cheerleader advisory duties, close personal contact with students: For me, it seems that such interaction eliminates the instructor-student communication gap, and serves to inspire intellectual curiosity—so essential to any learning process, and therefore to "life" itself.

PSYCHOLOGY

Curtis D. Hulteen

(Assistant Professor)

I am currently teaching what I feel is an innovation in the teaching field. It is a Psychology course in which students that have already shown proficiency in the General Psychology are working as proctors to students currently taking the course. The advantage of this type of course is that large groups of students can be handled at one time, yet individual attention can be given to each student. I was awarded my B.S. and M.S. degrees from Illinois State University. I am working on my Ph.D. in behavior modification at Southern Illinois University. I joined the staff in 1968.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

William L. Kruse

(Associate Professor)

I was awarded my B.A. degree from the University of Iowa and my M.A. degree from the University of Kentucky. I have been with the college since 1969, having taught on the junior high level for nine years, at Southern Illinois University in Carbondale and Lees Junior College in Kentucky. I teach men and women's Physical Education, First Aid, Health, Golf, Track and Field, and Basketball. My other duties are head basketball coach and athletic director. This summer I expect to earn my Ph.D. from Indiana University.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

Kenneth Maguire

(Assistant Professor)

I was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and was raised in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. With this past history I was a natural for a Social Science professor. So, in 1967 I joined Black Hawk East College as one of its original staff members. This year I have the honor of being the sponsor of the Booster Club and faculty representative to and President of the Arrowhead Athletic Conference. I also serve as Chairman of the B.H.E. Curriculum Committee and as the Vice Chairman of the Faculty. I was awarded my B.A. and M.A. from Eastern Kentucky State College.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

Stephen R. Sams

(Instructor)

I received my B.A. degree from Illinois Wesleyan University and did my graduate work in History at the University of Iowa. I joined the staff in September 1970 after teaching one year at Bradford Unit District. At Black Hawk East I am the sponsor of the Young Democrats Club. Recently I became a member of the Illinois National Guard.

SCIENCE

John E. Bonebrake

(Assistant Professor)

I was brought up in Erick, Oklahoma, and received my B.S. degree at Southwestern State College at Weatherford, Oklahoma in 1963 with majors in both biology and chemistry. I received an M.S. degree in 1967 from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale with a major in zoology and a minor in botany. My master's thesis was done in the area of herpetology; this study has been accepted for publication in the JOURNAL OF MORPHOLOGY.

I am presently teaching general biology and introduction to chemistry classes and working on the organization of laboratories, materials, and equipment for these courses.

MATHEMATICS

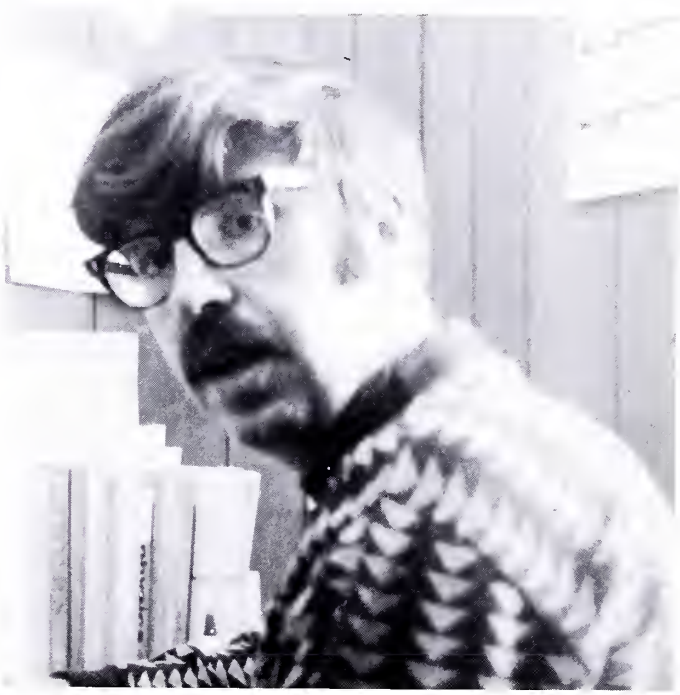

Doug Sergeant

(Instructor)

"Life is not a 'static process', why should education be so?"

To understand my philosophy of education, one must first be aware of my twofold definition of the term. First, I feel that "education" should help you become a more responsible person, a person who is able to recognize his responsibilities to propagate our society.

In my teaching field, Mathematics, I am constantly seeking answers to various "problem-situations" whose solutions are arrived at by a sequential process. I feel mathematics should be taught for various "sequences" or "patterns," which should be studied, in the hope, that the student will discover a process that will work for him when dealing with "problem-situations" in life. Once the onosphere (mind) has been trained to analytically solve problems, it will go through these processes automatically if allowed to do so.

ART

Mrs. Dorothy Smith

(Instructor)

I have taught all the art courses that have been offered at Black Hawk East since its beginning, until this year. Now I only wish to teach part-time, so I have two classes a week: Art Appreciation and Two Dimensional Design first semester, and Craft Workshop and Two Dimensional Design second semester. I love teaching and am happiest when teaching. Other interests are collecting and reading art books. I have my B.S. degree from Bradley University and my M.A. degree from the University of New Mexico.

MUSIC

Fenton Fly

(Instructor)

I received my Bachelor of Music Education degree at Wichita State University, my Master of Music Education degree at Indiana University and my Doctor of Musical Arts degree at the University of Missouri. My current position is at the Kewanee Community Unit Schools teaching Instrumental and Vocal Music, but I have taught part-time at Black Hawk East every semester that it has been in operation.

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Steve Schaefer

(Instructor)

I teach Business Administration at Black Hawk East. I have entered teaching here because I desired to find out whether I would enjoy teaching as a lifetime profession before continuing with a Ph.D. I believe that actual experience in practical business situations should supplement text book theories; therefore, I have conducted with my classes a series of marketing surveys, price comparisons, and financial position papers. In the near future I will be pursuing a Ph.D. at Berkeley.

BUSINESS OCCUPATIONS

Carolyn Beechler

(Instructor)

I joined Black Hawk East Faculty in September of 1970. This is my first year of teaching on a junior college level. I had previously taught business education in Michigan, Missouri and Illinois for a total of five years. In my courses I try to teach what I feel is important as a result of the several years of secretarial experience I have had. In the future I hope to continue graduate study and my college teaching. I was awarded my B.S. degree from Western Illinois University and my M.A. degree from Michigan State University.

AGRICULTURE

Eldon R. Aupperle

(Coordinator of Agriculture Education and Chairman of Occupational Programs)

I am the Chairman of the Occupational Programs and my duties are to coordinate courses and supervise the faculty members under my program. I also articulate with four year colleges and universities for the purposes of program improvement. I review with the provost applications of new faculty members. Before coming to the college in 1967 as an original staff member I taught at Buckley-Loda and Warren high schools. I also was a Vo-Ag. Instructor at Wabash Valley College in Mt. Carmel, Illinois. I received my B.S. and M.S. and am presently doing graduate studies at the University of Illinois.

AGRICULTURE

Lanny Anderson

(Instructor)

I am a native of the Cambridge area and have always been interested in the rural community. It is for this reason that I decided to make Agriculture my profession. Before coming to Black Hawk East I taught Vocational Agriculture at Easton High School for five years. At B.H.E.C. I teach a variety of courses from Agricultural Economics to Farm Machinery Management. My on campus activities include Chairman of the Faculty Senate and Co-Advisor of the Agri-Business Club. I received my B.S. and M.Ed. degrees from the University of Illinois.

AGRICULTURE

Dan E. Hoge

(Instructor)

I am a native of Walnut Illinois and presently live in Cambridge. I joined the Black Hawk East faculty in September of this year. Before coming to B.H.E.C. I was the Henry County Assistant Extension Adviser in Agriculture for the University of Illinois. I teach Animal Science in the Occupational Programs. I received both my B.S. and M.S. degrees in Animal Science at the University of Illinois.

AGRICULTURE

Ronald Raber

(Instructor)

I am from a small farm community in Central Illinois called Flanagan, Illinois. I have always been interested in how crops can be affected by different climates and soils. It was for this reason that I majored in Agronomy in college. Before I joined the staff of Black Hawk East College I was a Navy officer. After my duty in the service I went back to the University of Illinois to get my M.S. degree, having received my B.S. degree from the University before my enlistment. I joined Black Hawk East in September of this year and teach crops and soils.

NURSING

Judy Tyler

(Instructor)

I received my B.A. degree from Knox College in Galesburg and was a graduate of the Galesburg Cottage Hospital school of Nursing. I joined the Black Hawk East faculty in September of 1970. Betty Rake and I direct the Nursing Service Curriculum at B.H.E.C. . . . Before coming to Black Hawk I taught nursing at Carl Sandburg College in Galesburg.

NURSING

Betty Rake

(Instructor)

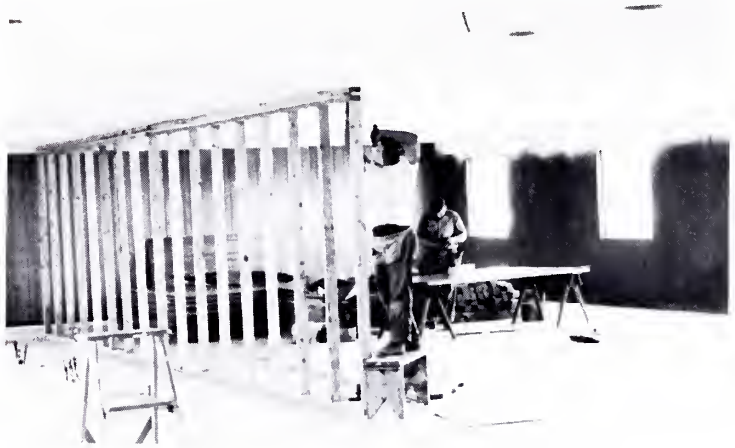

I was born in Onconta, New York. I attended Penn Wesleyan College, Allentown, Pennsylvania for two years, and took nurses training at Milford Hospital in Delaware. For three years I was an Air Force nurse. I also spent a year in Zambia, Africa doing missionary work. Then I taught three years at the Cottage Hospital School of Nursing, Galesburg, Illinois, prior to coming to B.H.E. as an instructor in the Practical Nursing Program.

CAMPUS DEVELOPMENT

Initially, the voters created the district and the campuses. And, although the earth was empty, the spirit of the College moved over it.

Then, they said to let the campus begin and it began.

The workers divided the space into sections, and the construction began.

They said to let there be grass . . .

With a brush were whisked away the signs of what had been: so as to show what was to be.

The day arrived when the campus could show how far it had come.

The students came two by two . . . all through the year.

The voters stepped back and looked and said

OUR CREATION IS GOOD!

SENIOR GUEST DAY

A Senior Visitation Day was held Monday, March 29, for 1971 graduates of area high schools in the college district.

Approximately 125 high school students attended the program; guest students toured the college facilities in small groups led by BHE students.

A program of slides showing life at BHE was presented by Tom and Mark Goodwin. Students then met with faculty members to discuss academic programs offered here.

Mr. Eldon Aupperle, Chairman of Occupational Programs, presented an overview of vocational programs available. Mr. Fred Stahl, Chairman of Transfer Programs, outlined curricula for students whose goal is transfer to four-year schools.

A dinner and social hour followed in the Student Center. Visitation Day was sponsored by the BHE Student Senate.

There were some firsts for individuals: Don Verstraete captured second place in the Arrowhead Conference (bottom picture), and both he and Dave Bryner were able to qualify for the Regional in Champaign, at the U of I golf course.

IT'S NOT WHETHER YOU WIN OR LOSE—IT'S HOW YOU PLAY THE GAME!

This was the year of firsts for B.H.E.: first time on our new campus; first championship basketball team; and the first BHE golf team. All will go down in the BHE history books—even the golf record of 0-12!

What will not be recorded, though, will be the hard work put forth by our golfers. Although the team had no awards, their season was not a complete loss—for these men reduced a total of 60 strokes off their team score.

Under the guidance of Coach Les Arnold, the BHE Warrior baseball team compiled a 4-18 record.

Nevertheless, there were many high points during the campaign:

The Warriors outhit their opponents many times, altho they could never quite "put it all together." Leading hitters for the team were Sam DeTrent, Gene Scott, and Kirk Frageman. DeTrent also led the team in the RBI department. Tom Arnold and John Smith led in runs scored.
